
APPLY!

Online Application

`<style> .myButtonVyradne{ color: white !important; background-color: #3B56AD; } </style>`

`Apply!`

Deadline

The application deadline for the 2025/2026 academic year is February 28, 2025 .

The Results of the admission process will be announced in April 2025.

Requirements

- BA degree (finished by the end of September 2024)
- Motivation Letter (500–700 words)
- Structured CV (1–2 pages)
- 15-page Writing Sample (academic paper or BA thesis; preferably, but not mandatorily, gender-related; it must be written by the applicant only – co-authorship is not permitted!)
- English Language Proficiency B2 (or above) or equivalent (English-speaking degree, etc.)

All materials are to be uploaded into the online Application

For more information on M. A. program in Gender Studies and the admission requirements please see The Faculty of Humanities website

Tuition

The tuition fee is 5 000 EUR/year .

For further information on the schedule of instalments please contact the Student Administration Office via e-mail: study@fhs.cuni.cz

The Faculty of Humanities offers the possibility of obtaining a scholarship to all students enrolled in a Master's programme taught in a foreign language. The reasons for obtaining the scholarship can be both outstanding performances, as well as social disadvantages, etc.; anyone who successfully fulfils the conditions of the admission procedure and enrolls into studies can apply for the scholarship.

The application Process

The application process is two-fold. First, your application documents (CV, academic paper, motivation letter) are assessed by the teachers of the program. In case the decision is positive, the nostrification process (= the second phase of the application process) is launched.

For more information on application process please see Application .

Official information on application process is also available here .